

Proposal to create a AARE Council of Experts composed of respected educational researchers who've mostly held executive roles in the organisation or are long-term members.

Below are some possible areas and suggested experts – for discussion and development:

- Literacy - Annette Woods/Barbara Comber
- Numeracy - Peter Sullivan
- Assessment and Evaluation - Jim Tongolini
- Early Childhood - Susan Danby
- Initial Teacher Education - Martin Mills
- Schooling - Debra Hayes
- Post-secondary - Michele Simons
- Inclusive and Special Education - Linda Graham
- Aboriginal Education - Tracey Bunda
- Educational Research - Alyson Holbrook

We'd ask all to:

- prepare and keep updated a one page briefing paper to be housed on the AARE website
- work with the relevant SIG convenor to prepare responses on behalf of AARE to relevant inquiries.
- Participate in briefing roadshows to politicians and policy makers
- write at least one blog per year
- Represent AARE at events like the ACEL showcase
